PRICE FIVE CENTS

HONORED FOR HER SERVICES AS ECONOMIST

Mrs. Joanne Ketterer, Fairfield, assistant county extension home economist, was honored Tuesday night for her year's service in the county at the meeting of the executive committee of the county Agricultural Extension Service at its office on Baltimore St.

Mrs. Ketterer will complete her duties here this month to accept a post teaching home economics in Shippensburg's Seventh and Eighth Grades. Her husband has been named an assistant county agent in Cumberland County.

REPORT ON ACTIVITIES

Reports on the recent 4-H roundup at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, presented by Mrs. Ketterer and Duane Duncan showed there were 608 exhibits displayed by the 4-H youths at the roundup. Of that number, 306 were in home economics. The 4-H dairy show, held as part of the roundup, was the most successful so far with 23 head of cattle entered, compared to 11 in the prior year. The pig sale was the largest so far, with 71 pigs raised by 42 club members sold to seven buyers.

Duncan also reported 85 attended a Holstein twilight meeting at the farm of Wade Brown, Littlestown R. D., and 59 took part in a county dairymen's tour to Frederick County where they viewed four outstanding dairy herds. Twelve of the cows in the four herds had ratings of "excellent." Fourteen 4-H members accompanied the dairymen on the tour.

Mrs. Tunison said three new items to be included in the home-makers programs this year will be studies on style, outdoor cooking and cheese. Leader training sessions on the subjects will be held later.

TO PROMOTE SEMINARS

County Agent Thomas Piper urged members of the executive committee to promote attendance at a county-wide leadership seminar to be held here starting October 7 and continuing, with one two-hour meeting each week until November 25. Tentatively the meetings will be held in the cafeteria of the new Gettysburg Senior High School. He reported that the Adams County Farmers Association and the Gettysburg Jaycees have already agreed to join the extension association in sponsoring the seminar and that it is anticipated other Junior Chamber groups in the county will also join in sponsoring the programs. The seminar is designed particularly for leaders and governmental officials of the county.

Piper said a tour of sugar beet research plots in this section of the state will be held September 1. A corn research field day will be held at the Southeastern Field Research Lab near Landisville September 9.

Piper said he is urging counties to take part in the South-eastern Pennsylvania District Hay Show at Hershey stadium August 28 in conjunction with the South-eastern Pennsylvania Junior Dairy Show. Exhibitors may enter as many of the 24 classes as they wish, but may have no more than one entry in any one class. Entries close at 10 a.m. Friday, August 28, at the hay show tent at Hershey.

School Parents To Meet Tuesday

A meeting of parents who have registered children to attend kindergarten in the Fairfield Area schools will be held on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. It is important that at least one of the parents of each child be present at this meeting, a school announcement said. Among other things to be discussed will be the child's assignment to the morning or afternoon session and arrangements for transportation.

Any parent who has registered his child for kindergarten but who will be unable to attend this meeting or who has decided not to send his child to kindergarten should call Robert M. Reindollar, elementary school principal, at the school office. The phone number is 642-8227.

MUSSELMAN TO SERVE AS COORDINATOR

Howard Y. Musselman, Orrtanna, has been named county coordinator for Pennsylvania's comprehensive mental health and mental retardation plan being developed under the Governor's Council for Human Services, Arlin M. Adams, chairman.

The new county coordinator will organize a county committee to consider the needs of county residents, patients already receiving treatment, persons needing treatment, school children, welfare clients and other groups.

Musselman said the committee will draw heavily from the program initiated by the Adams County Mental Health Association, under the chairmanship of Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, which includes results of a survey conducted by Dr. John D. Shand, Gettysburg College, and Miss E. Elizabeth Rutledge, county supervisor of special education, to aid federal and state planning.

The county committee will conduct site visitations to determine available services for the community. Public hearings will be held in September, October and November to obtain information vital to recommendations for the state-wide plan.

Adams County is one of nine counties in southcentral Pennsylvania comprising Region Eight, of which Musselman is a regional committee member.

Dr. Bachman Ends Tour Of Europe

Dr. Albert Bachman has returned from his 43-day flying trip to Europe. No previous tour has seen so many "sons et lumieres" performances as the 1964 group, he said. The illuminated palaces, cathedrals, castles and town halls were "glorious sights and will be remembered for a long time," said Dr. Bachman.

Other highlights were the visits to the Vatican Museum at Milan, the Mozart home and museum and the music festivals at Salzburg and Bayreuth. The last outstanding event was the Shakespeare play at Stratford-upon-Avon.

This year's party consisted of only 11 members. It was Dr. Bachman's last tour.

Lloyd V. Weidner, Seminary Ave., was a member of the group.

J. B. HORNER DIES IN CALIF.

John Byron "Jack" Horner, 78, Fullerton, Calif., died Saturday morning at his home.

He was born in Belle Plains, Kan., grew up at Knoxlyn and went to the Fullerton area following service as a U. S. Army major in World War I. A citrus rancher, he was postmaster at Fullerton from 1926 to 1934. He sold his 30-acre citrus grove in 1954.

He was a son of the late Charles Finley and Kate (Knox) Horner. He attended Gettysburg College for two years as a member of the class of 1908 and then went to Pierce Business College in Philadelphia. He had operated the mill at Knoxlyn for some years before entering the service in World War I.

He was a long-time member and past president of the Fullerton Kiwanis Club and held a 40-year pin in the American Legion. He served as an elder in the First Presbyterian Church at Fullerton.

He is survived by his widow, Dorothy; a daughter, Mrs. Jeanne Wheeler, Fullerton, and three grandchildren. There are two sisters, Mrs. Harper P. Main, Shippensburg, and Mrs. J. Hugh Scott, Knoxlyn.

Services were conducted Monday at 2 p.m. at McAulay and Sutters Mortuary, Fullerton, with burial at Loma Vista Memorial Park. The Rev. Leonard Patterson of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. Charles Dierenfield of the Newport Beach Presbyterian Church, a nephew, officiated.

YOUTH CENTER MEETING

A meeting of the membership of the Gettysburg Youth Center will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the center on N. Washington St.

SECURE LICENSE

3 Fire Companies Receive Alarms

Gettysburg firemen were summoned to the Gettysburg Shoe Co. lot along the Fairfield Rd. Tuesday afternoon at 2:44 o'clock when a car owned by James Ketterman, Littlestown R. 1, caught fire. Firemen estimated damage to the front seat of the car at $35 and said the fire was apparently started by a cigarette.

Irishtown firemen summoned New Oxford firemen to assist this morning about 10 o'clock when a chicken house and stable at the former Bud Moore place at Irishtown burned.

GOP COUNCIL HOLDS PICNIC

Gov. William W. Scranton emerged from the Republican National Convention a more influential figure than he went in, according to Lawrence B. Sheppard, delegate from the 19th Congressional District to the convention in San Francisco.

Speaking Tuesday evening before members and guests of the Adams County Council of Republican Women at their annual picnic at Bendersville Park, Sheppard gave his impressions of the convention.

He described in entertaining fashion the hectic life of a delegate, the caucus sessions of the Pennsylvania delegation and the operation of the official sessions of the convention. In his opinion, he said, Gov. Rockefeller was a poor loser and Gov. Romney appointing in both words and actions.

He held the highlight of the convention to be Governor Scranton's final call for unity behind Senator Goldwater which did much to rally not only the Pennsylvania delegates but all delegates to the Goldwater cause. In this speech Scranton showed himself to be a man of deep conviction, a man of stature who could be "gracious in defeat and gallant in leadership," Sheppard said. With the help of "his wonderful family," he emerged from the 1964 convention as a possible leading contender for the nomination in 1968, Sheppard added.

During the brief business meeting of the Women's Council, at which Mrs. D. Edwin Benner, president, presided, the council voted to contribute $10 per month toward the expense of the county committee office which would also be available for use by the women's group. It was also voted to contribute $50 toward expenses of two county Republican students being sent to a youth training seminar at Pennsylvania State University August 23-29. Mrs. Clark Frey reported that the Totem Pole benefit performance of "My Fair Lady" showed incomplete returns of over $400.

Mrs. Richard Brendle, county vice chairman, spoke on registration and Mrs. Benner introduced County Chairman Clark Spence, State Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker, State Committeeman Fred Pfeffer and former County Chairman H. Earl Pitzer.

TO GET HEARING

Harmon Ridgeway Jr., Gardeners R. 2, was placed in the county jail Tuesday by state police on a morals charge filed before Justice of the Peace John Whitman. A hearing will be held today before the justice.

AMOS E. KUMP DIES SUDDENLY

Amos E. Kump, 63, of 714 S. Washington St., died suddenly Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 while at work at the Adams County Novelty Co., where he had been employed for the last six years.

With several other men he had gone to a shed near the plant to obtain lumber and was suddenly stricken. The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said the death was caused by a coronary occlusion. Kump was a member of the local Moose and Eagles lodges.

A native of Adams County, he was a son of the late Charles and Anna (Wagaman) Kump.

Survivors include his wife, the former Laura Speelman, whom he wed in 1937; three brothers and sisters: Mrs. Harvey Daywalt, Gettysburg; Frank Kump, Two Taverns; Mrs. Fred Shultz, Lancaster; Mrs. Isaac Metz, Orrtanna; James Kump, Orrtanna and Mrs. Luther Speelman, Two Taverns, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St. with the Rev. Donald Harper officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Candidates Will Talk To Democrats

Candidates for election in November will be the principal speakers Thursday evening at the Young Democratic Club annual corn bake at Marsh Creek Heights, according to Kenneth J. Cole, president of the local organization. Speakers will include Neiman Craley, Democratic candidate for Congress; Fred G. Klunk, candidate for state assemblyman, and Gilbert Lupp, candidate for the state senate. The meeting is scheduled for 6:30 o'clock. Prospective new members are invited to attend.

Cole said that tickets for the one-day bus trip to the Democratic national convention in Atlantic City next Thursday are available. Seats will be reserved with a deposit of $10, which will include transportation costs and convention ticket. The bus will leave the Hotel Gettysburg at 5:30 a.m. Thursday and will return about midnight. The excursion is open to any resident of Adams County, regardless of political affiliation, Cole said.

Three Children Injured In Falls

Three children were treated Tuesday at the Warner Hospital for injuries received in falls.

Lou Ann Green, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green, R. 2, was treated for fractures of both bones of the right forearm, fracture of the right collarbone, and abrasions of the arms and legs suffered in a fall from a bicycle.

Ruth Ann Harness, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harness, 55 South St., received treatment for a fracture of the right upper arm sustained Sunday in a fall from a swing.

David Parker Todd, 15-month-old son of State Policeman and Mrs. Charles Todd, 639 Red Patch Ave., was treated for a laceration of the right eyebrow inflicted when he fell and struck his head while swinging.

LOCAL GIRL IS SELECTED AS PEACH QUEEN

Adams County today has a new peach dessert queen.

She is 19-year-old Carol Hostetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hostetter, Gettysburg R. 2, a sophomore at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, where she will major in home economics.

Judges spent three hours Tuesday afternoon choosing a queen and two runners-up from among 14 contestants in the annual affair to promote the peach industry. The contest was held on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic E. Griest Jr., Flora Dale.

Miss Brenda Bean, 20, Bendersville, former state apple queen and a junior at Gettysburg College, was first runner-up. Miss Patty Rhinehart, 17, a Biglerville High School senior, was second runner-up.

TASTY CHOICE

Miss Hostetter's winning recipe was a peach dessert roll which combined flaky pastry with fresh peaches and whipped cream. The judges were faced with the task of choosing a winning dessert from 14 different recipes, which included peach puff pie, peach delight, peach graham torte, peach cobbler, peach chiffon, peach bars and peach and rice pudding. Miss Bean's entry was a peach swirl pie and Miss Rhinehart's recipe was a peaches and cream torte.

Miss Hostetter received a $25 savings bond from the Adams County Fruitgrowers Association in addition to one of the gifts presented to the three top winners. All of the contestants received bracelets. The winner will complete Aug. 25 in the contest to name a state peach queen.

OTHERS IN CONTEST

Other contestants were Connie Bream and Susan Kime, Bendersville; Debbie Beidler and Connie Stalmsmith, Biglerville; Yolanda Swisher and Judy Tate, Arendtsville; Peggy Goehnauer, Biglerville R. 2; Carolyn Hook, Gettysburg R. 1; Brenda Lightner and Pamela Rhinehart, Hanover R. 5; and Anna Mae Sites, Fairfield R. 1.

Judges were Mrs. Lloyd Benner, Fairfield; Mrs. Wilmer Diehl, Biglerville; and Thomas Pieper, Gettysburg.

The contest is arranged for the Peach Council by Mrs. Frederic E. Griest Sr., Flora Dale.

Mrs. Murtorff Dies On Tuesday

Mrs. Goldie Murtorff, 76, Gardeners R. 1, widow of the late Dosh Murtorff, died Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock in the Carlisle Hospital where she had been a patient for a week. She had undergone surgery last Friday.

A daughter of the late George and Mary (Shuff) Froft, she was born and always resided in Cumberland County. She was a member of the Urah EUB Church and of Class No. 1 of the Sunday School of that church. Her husband died in 1929.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Rodney Weaver, Gardeners R. 1, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Urah EUB Church with the Rev. J. Kenneth Barner officiating. Interment in the Urah Cemetery. Friends may call at Mrs. Murtorff's late home Friday evening after 7 o'clock. The funeral arrangements were made through the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville.

Accounting Firm Sets LBJ Family Wealth At Above $3 Million; Lady Bird Richer

WASHINGTON (AP) — An accounting firm hired at the direction of President Johnson reported today that the Johnson family fortune totals $3,484,098.

The firm of Haskins & Sells said the President and Mrs. Johnson and their two daughters, Lynda Bird and Luci Baines, had total assets of $3,682,770 as of July 31.

On the same date, the family had liabilities of $198,672, which reduced their net worth to $3,484,098.

MOST IS LADY BIRD'S

The accounting firm said President Johnson's assets amounted to $477,417 and his liabilities were $99,336.

The detailed statistical table made it evident that most of the Johnson wealth is held in the name of the First Lady. Mrs. Johnson's assets were said to total $2,225,634 with liabilities of $99,336.

This gave Mrs. Johnson a net worth of $2,126,298 compared

Township Officials Meet In December

The 47th annual convention of the Adams County Township Officials will be held December 9 in the courthouse, Earl Heikes, Latimore Twp., president of the association of supervisors, auditors, assessors and tax collectors, announced today. The Methodist Church here will serve a turkey dinner at noon.

The state association, as well as the state Highway Department, will be represented at the convention. County officers, in addition to President Heikes, are Clyde Hall, Franklin Twp., vice president; Ervin J. Baker, Hamilton Twp., secretary, and Clyde A. McCauslin, Mellen Twp., treasurer.

FORMER TOWN RESIDENT DIES; WAS TEACHER

Mrs. Jane Shields Leithiser, 83, died Tuesday at the Heart Institute in Miami, Fla.

A resident of Coral Gables, Fla., she was a native of Gettysburg, a daughter of the late Craig B. and Mary Agnes (McClary) Shields. She was the widow of James B. Leithiser, who had been a foreign representative of the Hershey Chocolate Co. in Cuba prior to his death a number of years ago.

Active in the national Republican party affairs, she had set up the Nixon headquarters in Florida during the 1960 campaign.

Before her marriage she had been an instructor of art in schools here and at York and Harrisburg. She was a member of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Coral Gables.

INTERMENT HERE

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Dearnley, Chestnut Hills, Pa.; four grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, a cousin, Mrs. David O. Decker, Ridge-wood, N. J. and her constant companion since 1949, Miss Maude Whiteleather.

Graveside services Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Evergreen Cemetery here with the Rev. Dr. Clarence Neal, Chambersburg, officiating.

The family will meet friends at Evergreen Cemetery at the time of the graveside services and following the services will be at the Hotel Gettysburg to receive friends. The funeral arrangements are being made through the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St.

YOUNG ANGLER GETS STING RAY NEAR AF PIER

COCOA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—"Bolstered by a ham sandwich, weary 15-year-old Tom Joyner Jr., battled a 370-pound sting ray for 18 hours.

He finally got it to shore, but with the help of divers. "I don't care," Tom said. "I got him anyway."

He never let go of the line from 6:45 p.m. Monday until 1:30 p.m. Tuesday when two divers ran an oar through the ray's gills and helped Tom haul him to the beach with a boat.

CROWD WATCHED

A huge crowd, part of the thousands who came by during the day, had gathered.

Tom wouldn't leave the 600-foot-long Patrick Air Force Base pier after he hooked into the ray, a round, flat-bodied creature with a whip-like tail capable of inflicting severe wounds.

Through the night, his father and friends fed him coffee. When morning and the hot Florida sun came, Tom switched to soft drinks.

HANDS BURNED

His father sprayed the reel with water but it still burned Tom's hands through his heavy gloves.

Just before noon, Tom ate a ham sandwich — his only food during the battle. He was never able to bring the ray closer than 200 yards, and he decided to go after it in a boat when it played out 300 yards of his 400-yard, 98-pound test line.

Tom's battle wasn't the first at the pier. Last July, Mike Douglas, 15, battled a giant jewfish for 33 hours before losing it. Also last July, Tom landed a 310-pound shark, a record for the pier.

CHALLENGES KEATING ON NOMINATION

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Paul A. Fino, Bronx County Republican chairman, has challenged Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester for the GOP nomination to the U.S. Senate.

Fino says Keating, who formally announced for a second term Tuesday, "cannot and should not" ask for renomination as long as he continues to withhold endorsement of presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Until Fino declared his candidacy in a statement in Washington, Keating had been expected to win unanimous nomination at the Republican State Committee meeting here Aug. 31.

FLOOR FIGHT

Fino's move raised the possibility of a floor fight at the meeting, but nomination of Keating appeared certain. Keating's announcement won favorable reaction among party leaders, including Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, State Chairman Fred A. Young and Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

Fino said, "Keating's failure and refusal to support the national ticket is tantamount to bolting the Republican party."

A free catered breakfast will be held at the Gettysburg Country Club Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock for all women who joined the golf association in the spring. Their women are welcome by making reservations by Monday with Mrs. G. Donald Wickerham.

WRIT COVERS MARES, COLTS

The Hanover Shoe Farms, of Conewago Twp., Hanover R. 4, has secured writs of foreign attachment-assumpsit in the county court to hold three mares and their five foals because of an alleged debt of $37,890 based on care and keep of the horses, stud fees and taxes.

The suit is against Emily G. Holman, executor of the will of R. F. Holman, late of Exmore, Va., according to the papers filed in the prothonotary's office by the law firms of Laird and Buchen and Bulleit and Bulleit.

Covered by the attachment are a bay mare, "Silver Ann," and her two bay filly foals by "Hoot Mon"; a chestnut mare, "Sunsera," and her brown colt foal and bay filly foal by "Star's Pride" and a bay mare, "Tralee," and her brown filly foal by "Tar Heel."

According to the complaint, Holman brought the three mares to the farms to be bred and cared for over several years. The complaint lists stud fees for "Star's Pride" and "Hoot Mon" at $5,000 and for "Tar Heel" at $2,500. State tax is also owed on the stud fees.

TRIO INJURED

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace L. Haulik, both 22, of James City, Pa., and their son, David, were treated at the Warner Hospital following an auto accident late Tuesday afternoon at the Lincoln Motel, Carlisle St. and E. Lincoln Ave. Mr. Haulik, the driver, was treated for contusions of the forehead and his left knee. His wife received treatment for contusions of the forehead and minor abrasions of both knees. Their son sustained only minor bruises. Details of the accident were unavailable.

The bride attended Gettysburg High School and is employed by the Rea & Derick Drug Store. The groom graduated from the same school in this year's class and is employed by Dutch Cupboard.

SENATE VOTE KILLS CHANCE FOR DEBATES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats have relieved President Johnson of the burden of deciding whether to debate Sen. Barry Goldwater in a radio-television campaign confrontation.

They locked horns with Republicans over the issue of who is chicken.

By a 44-41 vote the Senate tabled Tuesday night — and thus killed — legislation to suspend equal time provisions of the Communications Act.

The measure was similar to the one which paved the way for Kennedy-Nixon debates in 1960. Twelve Democrats joined 29 Republicans in opposing the tabling. All the 44 votes to kill were cast by Democrats.

Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., charged that it was "very evident" some influence has been ordered from higher up to junk this bill because of the exigencies of this campaign.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., the keynote speaker for the Democratic National Convention opening Monday, voted against tabling the compromise measure which he had supported.

Pastore said Goldwater had once declared on a television program the president of the United States should not be placed in the position of debating an opponent.

The rejected bill would have suspended for 60 days the requirement that if a network offered free time to any presidential candidate, it would have to give equal time to all, including those of perhaps a dozen minor parties.

Although nobody concerned would say publicly that Johnson wanted the bill killed, the action came after Democratic legislative leaders had conferred with him at the White House.

DEATHS

Clyde C. Bailey, 37, husband of Mrs. Betty Jane Shaffer Bailey, Millers, Md., died at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday at Memorial Osteopathic Hospital, York.

A life-long resident of that area, Mr. Bailey was a member of the United Church of Christ congregation of Bethlehem Union Church at Stiltz. He was a carpenter by trade.

6 KILLED WHEN AUTO CROSSES PIKE BARRIER

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—A convertible shot over a 30-inch-high medial barrier near the Ohio gateway to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Tuesday night and slammed head-on into a station wagon, killing six persons and seriously injuring three others.

A truck driver directing traffic around the wreckage was also injured when he was hit by a car.

It was the worst accident in the history of the turnpike. The previous high death toll in a single accident was five in a crash 10 years ago before the medial barrier was put up.

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission said the dead were:

BOTH DRIVERS DEAD
Jerry Tinsley, 18, of Cleveland, driver of the convertible, and these passengers in Tinsley's car:

Parnell Lewis Days, 17, Morris D. Lanier, 18, Robert Carl Price, 18, all of Cleveland, and Isaac Reznick, 50, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Another passenger, Kenneth Francis, 15, also of Cleveland, was listed in serious condition at Providence Hospital in Beaver Falls.

The sixth victim was Frank Heinz, 26, of Center, N. D., the driver of the station wagon.

THREE IN HOSPITAL

His wife, Lenore, 24, was listed in serious condition at the hospital. Their daughter, Kyle, 3, was transferred from Providence Hospital to Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh where she is listed in serious condition.

The truck driver, James Hilbert, 45, of (326 E. Pine St.) Selinsgrove, Pa., was admitted to Providence Hospital. He was listed in fair condition.

Beaver County Coroner Dr. John W. Colavincenzo quoted state police as theorizing that the accident occurred in this way:

LOST CONTROL

Tinsley, eastbound, was attempting to pass a car on a portion of the turnpike that curved to the left and was slightly upgraded when his car began fishtailing. He lost control, Colavincenzo said, and the car catapulted the medial barrier strip without touching it and slammed into Heinz' car, which was traveling west and was in the left lane of the highway.

Dr. Colavincenzo quoted police as estimating that Tinsley's auto was traveling about 85 miles per hour on the 65-mile-per-hour four lane turnpike. The accident occurred about eight miles east of the Pennsylvania-Ohio border.

State police said they did not know the destination of either car. Even the families of the boys in Tinsley's car apparently didn't know either.

Young Francis' father, Willie, said in Cleveland that he had no idea his son was out of town.

o'clock in the West St. branch bank at which representatives of the Church World Services will outline the CROP program, of helping other peoples, to leaders from farm organizations and representatives of the Adams County Council of Churches.

Area Marketing Agent Larry Yeager reported on work with a dozen roadside markets, about half in Adams County; working with a York County association of manufacturers with the lumber industry in developing sources and a peach promotional program involving 10 stores and five growers arranged by the Franklin County Horticultural Society.

Associate County Agent Joseph Lutz reported on service as a staff member for one week at a forestry camp near Standing Stone, Huntingdon County. He urged county high school students interested in forestry to contact the local extension office for details and expressed the hope there may be some countians at the camp next year.

NAMED TO COMMITTEE

Executive Committee President Paul Pitzer appointed Mrs. Ralph Hikes, York Springs; Charles Klinger and Adam Lobaugh as members of the committee to plan the annual county extension meeting. The committee will meet September 15 at the home of Charles Klinger to further plans for the event.

Mrs. Paul Redcay, Seven Stars; Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. D., and President Pitzer reported on the state conference for county executive committee members they attended at Pennsylvania State University. Mrs. Redcay reported on a session on public understanding of extension. She said reports at the meeting showed one-ninth of all graduate students in home economics are men and one-third of the undergraduate students taking home economics at the university are men.

Bottled Gas Truck Upsets On Curve

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—A truck driver escaped serious injury Tuesday when a vehicle laden with bottled propane gas overturned on a rain-slicked curve in nearby Exeter Township.

Police said the load of 100 gallons of gas apparently shifted as the truck rounded a curve, and the vehicle turned over on its side.

The driver, Aaron Daily, of Tunkhannock, was taken to Pittsburg Hospital and treated for bruises.

Some nearby residents were evacuated by police in a precautionary move, but there was no fire or explosion.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., supported a Senate proposal Tuesday that killed 44-41, by tablement, a bill that would have suspended the equal time provision of the communications act to permit presidential debates. Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., voted against tabling.

COOL WEATHER ACROSS STATE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Subnormal temperatures slowed some farm operations last week according to the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service.

In its weekly farm summary released Tuesday, the service reported:

"Showers generally helped hay growth, but cool weather retarded drying in most sections of the state. Corn, too, showed the effect of the cool weather and made little growth during the week.

"The grape crop in Erie County is developing normal size and fruit is of good quality. Late apple varieties are increasing in size and crop prospects look good. Ripening of peaches was retarded somewhat by cool weather.

"Early potato digging is advancing rapidly, but yields are only fair. Later varieties are making satisfactory growth and good yields are expected.

"Tobacco cutting has started in Lancaster County."

Allegheny Plans Custom Flights

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new type of service using relatively light airplanes on high frequency schedules is being planned by Allegheny Airlines on a trial basis at one or two smaller cities on its system.

Allegheny President Leslie O. Barnes said in a statement Tuesday the service will be designed to be so attractive to business travelers that it can be offered at higher than first class rates.

Allegheny hopes to start the test by the end of the year if it gets approval from the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Federal Aviation Agency.

The use of smaller planes would enable the airline to operate more frequent schedules than it could afford to do with the larger airliners it now uses.

BRIDGE SOCIETY PICNIC

The Theodore Burr Covered Bridge Society of Pennsylvania, Inc., will hold its annual picnic on Sunday at the domestic science kitchen in Reservoir Park, Harrisburg. Members and friends of the society are urged to attend. Those participating should be at the pavilion by 11:30 a.m. Each person is to bring a covered dish of food and the picnic will then be served buffet style at noon.

The summer business meeting will be held at 2:30 p.m., with an exhibit of scrapbooks, models, pictures of covered bridges and any other items which members collect, to be viewed after the business meeting.

AMVET Auxiliary Reports Earnings

The Fairfield Amvets Auxiliary earned $31.71 from a sale held August 15 and $63.36 for serving a stag picnic at the Amvet picnic grounds August 9, members were told at a Tuesday evening meeting.

President Faye Baker announced that the auxiliary has been invited to a masquerade Halloween party to be held October 5 by the Fairfield Firemen's Auxiliary. A Central District meeting is scheduled for October 4 at Columbia.

The door prize was won by Ethel Kroh. The pig-in-the-poke was won by Geraldine Cook. The next meeting will be held September 15.

STORM LEAVES HERSHEY DARK

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—A power failure during a heavy thunderstorm blackened virtually this entire community of 6,851 for more than an hour Tuesday night and threw 40 to 50 telephones out of service.

Kenneth Hatt, general manager and controller of the Hershey Electric Co., said the power went off at 8:11 p.m. and was restored at 9:30 p.m. The telephones, however, remained out of service overnight.

Hatt said lightning hit two main feeders and burned off a switch which had to be replaced. The power failure delayed a performance of Ice Capades at the Sports Arena.

A spokesman at Hershey Amusement Park said lack of power had little effect there since the rain had sent most of its patrons scurrying to their homes.

Power remained on at the Hershey Chocolate Corp., where it is generated. Hatt said Hershey Electric purchases its power from Metropolitan Edison Co., through the chocolate firm.

LOCAL DRIVER FACES CHARGE

A young Gettysburg driver was charged with reckless driving after he fell asleep at the wheel and his car damaged two parked cars in Waynesboro early Sunday.

Patrick Lee Riggs, 19, Gettysburg, told Waynesboro police he dozed at the wheel of his east-bound car when it ran into the rear of a parked car in front of 344 W. Main St. at 12:50 a.m.

Riggs' 1956 Pontiac coupe rammed the rear of a 1959 Buick sedan owned by Benjamin R. Moudy, Rouzerville, pushing it forward into a parked 1963 Chevrolet sedan owned by William N. Spalding, Hagerstown.

Riggs was not hurt but the front end of his car sustained extensive damage as did the front and rear of Moudy's car. The rear of Spalding's car was damaged.

Riggs has been charged before Justice of the Peace J. Edgar Oller, Waynesboro, with reckless driving.

Waynesboro police reported another weekend traffic violation involving an Adams County driver.

Ira Ross Linebaugh, Fairfield R. 1, was charged before Oller Sunday evening with failure to stop for a red traffic signal.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kathryn O'Hay Granahan, U.S. treasurer and former Pennsylvania congresswoman, is reported in satisfactory condition in a hospital after suffering fractures of the knee and elbow from a fall in a TV studio Tuesday.

The treasurer is the widow of Congressman William Thomas Granahan.

Bans Published: Bans of matrimony were published in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church Sunday morning for Miss Anna M. Redding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Redding R. 5, and Leo F. McDermitt, New Cumberland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. McDermitt, Harrisburg, formerly of Gettysburg R.D.

College Names Acting Head Of Biology Dept. Dr. Earl Bowen has been chosen acting head of the department of biology at Gettysburg college, according to an announcement made today by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president. Dr. Bowen, who will come to Gettysburg from the faculty of Long Island university, college of arts and sciences, Brooklyn, N.Y., will assume his duties here at the opening of the college term in September. A graduate of Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, with a degree of bachelor of arts, Dr. Bowen later received his master of arts and his doctor of philosophy degrees from Harvard University. It also has been announced by college authorities that Dr. Robert P. Marsh, West Broadway, has been released as head of the biology department and he will take a sabbatical leave for a year. Dr. Paul D. Altland will be Dr. Bowen's assistant. He was a member of the Gettysburg faculty last year.

Heat Ruins Corn: For the sixth consecutive day Gettysburgians were sweating in temperatures that were 90 degrees or higher. The heat adds to the troubles of county farmers and fruit growers whose crops are suffering acutely from lack of rain-fall. Corn fields present a discouraging sight with rolled leaves and signs of "firing" near the ground. Ears are small, while farmers say that many fields of late corn are ruined beyond hope of a crop. Pollen from the tassels covers the ground while the corn silks have not yet appeared. In many sections of the county the oats crop was a failure. Tomatoes and sweet corn raised by many farmers on factory contracts are suffering from lack of rain and fruitmen say that some varieties of apples are dropping badly. A number of wells and springs have gone dry and upper branches of some county creeks have stopped running.

FDR Alters Thanksgiving Day
Date: New York (AP)—President Roosevelt's announcement he would break a 75-year-old tradition by moving Thanksgiving Day up a week — to help out business — stirred both protest and praise today from governors, turkey growers and football coaches. The President said at Campobello island Monday he had decided the traditional last Thursday in November was too late for Thanksgiving so he was advancing the date from November 30 to November 23 this year. The precedent shattering change automatically makes liars of all 1929 calendars and promises to upset the nation's multi-million dollar Turkey Day football industry. Most produce men agreed the change would have little effect on the supply of turkeys available for the Thanksgiving market, although one said "a week can make a lot of difference."

A GREAT ART

It seems to me that one of the greatest of all arts is that of understanding. Most of the troubles of the world are traceable to misunderstanding. After all, we can do no better than to keep edging up close to the Golden Rule. The other fellow is just as important as we are! Let's keep that fact ever before us.

What causes a quarrel? Misunderstanding. What is it that separates people, both married and unmarried? Misunderstanding. What causes strife among employers and employees? Misunderstanding. What is it that plants the seeds of war among nations? Misunderstanding. And so it is all through life. Should it not be, therefore, the task of us all to try to understand over every circumstance or critical situation that may arise?

Each one of us is both right and wrong. We must be guided in our acts and decisions by remembering that others are in the same boat as we are, and are both right and wrong, so to get along happily we must meet on common ground — try to undertake the viewpoint of the other fellow. All life is a give and take affair.

Only fools and the unintelligent refuse to compromise for the good of the many. We live in a very imperfect world made up of many imperfect human beings, each one of us with his own imperfections.

If the Russians were Americans, they would believe as Americans do, and if Americans were Russians they would believe as the Russians do! That is the way it is. Likewise among all nationalities. Here is where the great art of understanding comes in. We must learn to put ourselves in the place of the other fellow and try to understand his circumstances of birth and life, and be just and tolerant.

We must learn to put ourselves in other people's shoes, and take a walk into the field of understanding.

Auxiliary Plans For Fire Carnival

Final plans to serve refreshments at the annual carnival of the Kingsdale Fire Company were made at the August meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the company on Monday evening in the engine house, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. The carnival will be held next Monday through Saturday, August 24-29 on the grounds in the rear of the engine house.

The auxiliary will open the cook house each evening of the carnival, when chicken corn soup, sandwiches and homemade pies will be available. Family style ox roast suppers will be served to the public on Friday, August 23, beginning at 6 p.m. and Saturday, Aug. 29, starting at 4 p.m.

It was decided to redecorate the kitchen of the engine house. It is hoped to have the project completed by the time of the carnival. Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, president, heard the reports of Mrs. Glenn Lipsey secretary, and Mrs. Lester Myers, treasurer.

Parlor bingo was played during the social hour. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Walter Sheely and Mrs. Blanche Shadle. Mrs. Amos L. Spangler and Mrs. Edgar A. Wolfe will be hostesses for the next meeting of the unit on Monday, September 21, at 8 p.m.

STORIES FOR MODERN CHILDREN

Shall I tell of a fairy who lived in a glen
In the shade of a lolly-pop tree
Who could instantly change little boys into men
By feeding them honey and tea?
Shall I tell of a princess shut up in a tower?
And in chorus the youngsters replied:
"No, give us a story of action and power,
Give us islands where rum-runners hide."

"Give us radio signals of 'calling all cars!'
Give us raids on the river front dives!
Give us rocket ships shooting their way up to Mars
And heroes who fight for their lives."

Let's have bandits who frequently shoot up a town
And gangsters who know they are tough.
Let's have heroes who step up and smack a man down,
But none of your fairy tale stuff."

I'm an old-fashioned fellow with old-fashioned ways
Who fancies when children are small
It's for stories of elves and goblins and fays
And witches on broomsticks they call.

But with "once on a time," when I start, now they say:
"Aw, that stuff doesn't go any more!"

And I find to my shocking surprise and dismay
They want murder and arson and gore.

The school is in session five days a week, 9 to 11:30 a.m. The tuition is $5 per week or $1 per day attended payable on the first day of the week. All children of the community are eligible who are four, five and six years of age. Mrs. John Kump and Mrs. Dean Stover are the teachers. Interested persons can get registration forms by calling the church office, 359-4822, on any Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday morning or by calling either of the teachers. Registrations are asked by September 1.

Tension Eases In Troubled Suburb

DIXMOOR, Ill. (AP) — Tension in this racially troubled community eased this morning after a night relatively free of violence.

The hope was that the rioting that began Sunday had run its course.

It had resulted in about 50 persons injured, heavy property damage and 70 persons arrested in the six-block area in the largely Negro suburbs of Dixmoor and Harvey south of Chicago.

The only incident Tuesday night was a fire at a golf course clubhouse near the trouble center.

NO RELIEF FOR DRY MIDWEST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showers fell in the East and Pacific Northwest today but continued to avoid the drought-stricken Midwest.

The dry weather persisted over the central United States where some late crops are struggling and livestock is running out of pasture.

The thundershowers broke from Virginia to Maine in the East. In the Northwest, the showers followed cool air that spread into Montana.

The only other rain in the weather picture was forecast for the Gulf Coast and the south Atlantic states.

A cold front from Virginia to western Illinois remained nearly stationary, which meant little change appeared in sight for the arid central states.

Temperatures ran from the 40s in the northern Great Lakes to the 90s in the desert Southwest.

Phillies Lose In 16th To Cubs But Giants Lose Too; Braves, Cards Post Wins

By MIKE RATHET

If you see it Al Dark's way, the San Francisco Giants were beaten in the first game of their vital home stand by three arms.

Dark, whose Giants are trying to overhaul National League-leading Philadelphia, wasn't too happy about the job done by Jim O'Toole's left arm as the Cincinnati pitch-led the Reds to a four-hit, 1-0 victory Tuesday night.

But what made the San Francisco manager furious was the feeling that the Giants were really given the business by Vada Pinson's waving arms.

DARK TOSSED OUT

The situation that angered Dark arose in the eighth inning of a scoreless duel between O'Toole and Bob Bolin, who had limited the Reds to two hits when they suddenly parlayed a walk, a bunt single, an error and Pinson's arms into the game's only run.

With one out in the eighth, Chico Ruiz walked and reached second on Marty Keough's bunt single. Pinson then lofted a short fly to center, shortstop Joss Pagan brushing into center fielder Willie Mays as the ball dropped between them. That filled the bases and set the stage for the key play.

Frank Robinson hit a ground-er to second baseman Hal Lanier, who flipped to Pagan for a force, but the Giants missed the double play when Pagan's relay to first pulled Orlando Cepeda off the bag. Ruiz entered the Reds' dugout after scoring as Dark came storming out of the Giants' dugout.

Dark protested that Pinson had interfered with Pagan's vision by waving his arms as he came into second base, but was overruled. He also was ejected.

The loss cost the Giants an opportunity to gain ground on the front-running Phillies, who maintained their five-game bulge despite a 4-3 loss in 16 innings to the Chicago Cubs.

Joey Amalfitano's two-run double won it for the Cubs in a 5-hour and 23-minute struggle which was the first to go past the 12:50 a.m. local time curfew since NL President Warren Giles lifted the time ban to allow all games to be played to a decision.

The St. Louis Cardinals, meanwhile, moved into fourth place as Ray Sadecki posted his 15th victory in a 5-2 triumph over Houston, Milwaukee's Denney Lemaster four-hit the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-1 and Joe Christopher slammed a homer, two triples and a double in the New York Mets' 7-3 walloping of Pittsburgh.

HOMER FRUITLESS

Amalfitano put an end to the Cubs-Phillies' marathon with two out in the 16th when he doubled after Andre Rodgers singled and pinch hitter Dick Bertell walked. The Cubs needed both runs as Philadelphia catcher Clay Dalrymple, who had committed a costly two-base error earlier, homered in the bottom of the 16th.

Dalrymple's error came after Amalfitano had homered in the eighth for the first run off Dennis Bennett, who had allowed only four hits and held a 1-0 lead. Dalrymple fired wild on a high bouncer in front of the plate by Leo Burke, who then scored on a double by Ernie Banks.

The Phillies tied it in the ninth when Alex Johnson, running for Wes Covington, who had singled, stole second and scored on Tony Taylor's single.

DRYSDALE LOSES

Sadecki, 15-9, won his own game in the seventh inning when he tripled and scored the run that broke a 2-2 tie on Lou Brock's single. Sadecki then turned the pitching over to Barney Schultz, who held the Colts in check the rest of the way.

Lemaster, bringing his record to 13-4, got the only runs he needed when batterymate Ed Bailey singled home two in the sixth inning after the Braves loaded the bases on an error, Lee Maye's single and a walk. That tagged Don Drysdale, 13-13, with the loss.

Christopher carried the load for the Mets, driving in three runs and scoring two. Ron Hunt chipped in with three hits in support of Al Jackson, who was tagged for a homer by Gene Freese but extended New York's winning streak to three games.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bo Belinsky will refuse to be optioned to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League, his attorney says.

Belinsky, suspended from his job as a lefthanded pitcher for the Los Angeles Angels, has 72 hours to report to Hawaii or face another suspension, the club said today.

Belinsky was originally placed on suspension after an altercation with sportswriter Braven Dyer.

Big O Sparks East To Win In Benefit

MONTICELLO, N.Y. (AP) — Oscar Robertson's long jump shot with less than three minutes to play sparked an East team to a 90-88 victory over a West squad Tuesday night in the sixth annual Maurice Stokes Benefit Game played by stars of National Basketball Association clubs.

The game, played at Kutsher's Country Club, drew a crowd of 2,200 and added $7,500 to the fund for Stokes, a former Cincinnati Royal star who was stricken by a paralytic disease at the height of his NBA career.

The game, which attracted 25 of the league's top performers, boosted the Stokes Fund to $32,500.

GHS BOOSTER CLUB STARTS SEASON PLANS

Plans for the forthcoming year were discussed at a meeting of the directors of the Gettysburg High School Booster Club Tuesday evening at the Elks home.

It was decided to continue the practice of placing large individual pictures of members of the varsity football squad in windows of business establishments. Stover Small and Robert Weaner were named to make arrangements for the taking of the pictures. At the conclusion of the season the pictures will be given to the individual players.

Booster Club tickets at $1 each will go on sale in the near future. Directors of the club and the Varsity Club at the high school will conduct the sale. The Booster Club will conduct a booth for the sale of tickets at the Warriors' first home football game Friday evening, September 25, with Shippenburg.

George Fissel, secretary-treasurer, revealed there is a balance of $246.80 in the treasury.

FINANCIAL REPORT

Last year the club started the year with a balance of $217.70. Receipts included the following: Sponsor tickets, $239; sale of pictures, $290; football banquet for which members paid their own tickets, $47.25; basketball trip to Baltimore for which members also paid their own costs, $44. Expenditures included: Printing and supplies, $15.65; pictures, $240; football banquet, $180.50; basketball trip to Baltimore, $175.

Funds raised by the club are used to help promote athletics at the high school and to support the program in supplying funds when needed.

Richard Finkbner, president, presided at the meeting. Other directors present included Fissel, Small, Weaner, Jim Hartzell, Noel Flynn, William Phelps and Don Bream.

SABAN SAYS HE HAS BEST CLUB YET IN BILLS

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Coach Lou Saban counts on the running of a healthy Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton and the passing of Jack Kemp to keep his Buffalo Bills in the thick of the race in the American Football League's Eastern Division.

"This should be the best club I've had," said Saban, who is starting his third year as head man. "Our main problem last year was losing key men like Carlton, Gilchrist and Dick Hudson for most of the season. Our offensive line should be better and our running game should be improved. We have added some young men who will help us on defense."

The Bills have a secret weapon in Pete Gogolak, the Hungarian refugee from Cornell who kicks field goals from a 45-degree angle, soccer-style. Gogolak booted a 57-yard field goal in the Bills' first exhibition game and thinks he can do better.

The Bills think they are solid up front with Hudson back at right tackle after missing a year with a knee injury. Dave Behrman moves over to right guard. Center Al Bemiller, left guard Billy Shaw and left tackle Stew Barber are the others.

Kemp, with Daryle Lamonia to back him up, will do the passing to split end Bill Miller, flanker Elbert Dubenion and tight end Ernie Warlick.

Gilchrist, reportedly sound again, is ready to carry the heavy burden at fullback, with Carlton, a 6-foot-2, 220-pounder, at running back Leroy Jackson, ex-Washington Redskins, is behind Carlton.

PROMISING ROOKIES

Saban is high on two rookie defense linemen, Harrison

AMALFITANO COMES BACK FOR CHICAGO

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It was 1:24 a.m.

The Philadelphia Phillies and the Chicago Cubs had just finished playing a game that lasted for 4 hours and 46 minutes—not counting a 31-minute delay for rain—the longest major league baseball game at Connie Mack Stadium since 1951.

And the Cubs' second baseman Joey Amalfitano was feeling great.

Amalfitano, whose fielding errors helped the Phillies defeat the Cubs Monday night, had a big night Tuesday.

SOLO HOMER

He hit a solo home run in the eighth inning to tie the score, then slammed a two-run double off the left field fence in the 16th inning to give the Cubs a 4-3 victory over the Phillies.

Despite the loss, the Phillies remained five games ahead of the second-place San Francisco Giants in the National League. Cincinnati defeated the Giants, 1-0.

The Phillies managed a run in their half of the 16th, a solo homer by Clay Dalrymple off Ernie Broglio.

Amalfitano's double came after Andre Rodgers singled and Dick Bertell walked with two out. Bob Booser, who pitched the last four innings, was charged with the loss, his third in six decisions.

Amalfitano had touched off the Cubs' two-run eighth inning rally with his homer after Philadelphia starter Dennis Bennett had given up only four hits. The second run came in when Leo Burke reached second as Dalrymple picked up his tap in front of the plate and threw wild. Burke scored on a double by Ernie Banks.

The Phillies tied the score at 2-2 in the ninth on Wes Covington's single, a stolen base and another single by Tony Taylor. Taylor also drove in the first Phillies' run in the seventh with a single after Frank Thomas had doubled.

MEETING AT BERMDUDIAN

The regular meeting of the Eagles Booster Club of Bermudian Springs High School will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the school cafeteria. All newly appointed committees are asked to be present to give reports.

(Hatch) Rosdahl of Penn State and Tom Keating of Michigan. Both are potential defensive ends. Jim Dunaway and Stestak at the tackles are top-flight. The ends are Roland McDole and Tom Day.

John Tracey, Harry Jacobs and Mike Stratton are the regular line-backers with Paul McGuire, former San Diego player, as reserve and also punter.

"Operation Hippocrates" Links Doctors Through Americas For Emergency Calls

By BASIL C. RAFFETY

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Six-seventeen a.m., Central Standard Time, Monday.

Dick Cunningham, a petroleum engineer, slips out of his bedroom and heads for the basement of his split-level suburban Omaha home.

Closeting himself in a small room filled with short-wave radio equipment and signs labeling it station K-Zero-HHP, he tunes his receiver to 14330 kilocycles and listens as he sips a cup of coffee.

SPECIALISTS AVAILABLE

One by one, other early-rising ham operators in the Western Hemisphere come on the air and check in with K4NAA, the Naval Reserve amateur radio station at Arlington, Va., which is Monday's control station on the Intercontinental Traffic Network.

At 7 a.m., Cunningham picks up his microphone.

"K4NAA this is K-Zero HHP, Omaha. We are ready to make our announcement."

"Go ahead, Omaha."

"This is K-Zero-HHP, Kay Zero Hotel Papa, Omaha. We have medical doctors here, specialists who will be glad to consult with any doctors in Central America or South America who wish to talk to them. Give us a call and we will help you."

"Stand by, K-Zero-HHP, while Mexico City repeats your announcement in Spanish."

NICARAGUA ANSWERS

In Managua, Nicaragua, Andy Wiesner is waiting for this announcement.

"K-Zero-HHP, this is YNIAW. I have Dr. Luis Favilli here. He wants to talk to an internal medicine specialist."

"Roger, YNIAW. Let's move up 10 kc, Andy, and I will get the telephone patch made."

"Roger, up ten."

Cunningham dials an Omaha telephone and Dr. William J. Dickerson answers.

"Doctor, we have our contacts all set up with a doctor in Nicaragua who would like to talk to you."

Then Andy comes back on the air to introduce Dr. Favilli to Dr. Dickerson and "Operation Hippocrates." Omaha's daily emergency medical advisory service, is under way.

Amateur radio logbooks are filled with reports of doctors who have responded to medical emergencies via radio, but originators of "Operation Hippocrates" say it represents among the first attempts to provide daily doctor-to-doctor consultation service by radio.

DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY

From 7 to 7:15 a.m. every day except Sunday an Omaha ham operator, manning a station powerful enough to reach anywhere in the Americas, stands by to handle emergency medical traffic.

So far, 10 Omaha doctors have agreed to accept these emergency calls whenever their specialties are involved. These include general surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, internal medicine, heart, dermatology, orthopedic surgery, eye, ear, nose and throat, pediatrics, and general practice.

"We have hopes of being able to call any doctor in Omaha," says Dr. Stanley Bach, the orthopedist and one of the prime movers in the project.

GREW FROM EMERGENCY

The idea for "Operation Hippocrates" grew out of a medical emergency in April involving a tanker five days out of Caracas with a seriously ill first mate.

Hugh Tinley, a property management executive who developed a disaster radio service for the local Red Cross chapter, intercepted the distress call and made a "phone patch" to the home of Dr. Lynn Thompson—another ham. Dr. Bach was on the air with his own radio and together the two doctors diagnosed the mate's illness and prescribed medication from the ship's well-stocked sick bay. Dr. Bach says what followed was Tinley's idea and Tinley says it was Dr. Bach's idea. But by July, the plans were completed and ham operators began spreading the word that any doctor in Latin America could reach Omaha doctors for consultation by radio.

The most important step was enlisting the help of the Intercontinental Traffic Network, a group of amateurs concerned principally with relaying messages between the Americas. It operates daily at 14330 kilocycles.

PRINCIPAL REASONS

Philip J. Craig, Hollywood, Fla., real estate man, K4CRU, lined up other net control stations including K4NAA, X1-EFFE in Mexico City, and KZ3-VR, Balboa Heights, Canal Zone, asking them to listen for calls from remote and less powerful stations.

If the Latin-American station doesn't have enough power to break into the chatter of the more powerful stations, net control does it for him.

Existence of this net was one of the principal reasons the Omahans felt their medical good neighbor gimmick would work. Another reason is that many doctors in Latin America practice in remote areas where consultations are hard to come by and radio is the chief source of communication with the outside.

Actors' Fund Aids

11,856 Persons

NEW YORK (AP)—The Actors Fund of America reports expenditures of $377,614 during the past year to aid 11,856 persons.

The summary of activities was made at the 82nd annual meeting of the benevolent organization which gets contributions from theatergoers with a bread-basket collection in all Broadway playhouses during Christmas week each year.

Re-elected officers of the fund are Vinton Freedley, president; Gilbert Miller, first vice president; Katharine Cornell, second vice president; Louis A. Lotito, treasurer, and Warren P. Munsell, secretary-general manager.

BLUE TRAINS TO BARN

ROME (AP)—The little blue Toonerville Trolley trains that have been hauling commuters and tourists between Rome and the castled Alban Hills for 60 years will be sent to the barns forever.

The old trolleys, which went into service in 1904, will be replaced this year by buses.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Aug. 19, the 232nd day of 1964. There are 134 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1812, the United States frigate Constitution, famed in history as Old Ironsides, defeated the British frigate Guerriere in a battle in the North Atlantic.

On this date:

In 1942, the greatest commando attack in history was made by Allied forces on the Nazi-occupied port of Dieppe, France.

In 1844, the U.S. 3rd Army smashed into the suburbs of Paris.

In 1946, Washington disclosed that a second American transport plane had been forced down by Yugoslav fighter planes over Yugoslavia.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower defended his Republican administration and criticized prophets of depression in a speech in Springfield, Ill.

Five years ago — The Discoverer 6 satellite was successfully launched into orbit from its California base.

One year ago — Some 150,000 British construction workers started a strike for higher pay and a shorter work week.

SHE'S NOT AMUSED

WELLINGTON, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. J. C. Smith discovered that one of two decorative concrete eagles on pillars in front of her house was gone.

Pranksters who had hauled away the 150-pound ornament left two eggs in its place.

LESSON ENDER

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla. (AP)—A palm tree disrupted a driving lesson being given Mrs. Jane Christy Tonkin. Police Chief Nick Pappas and Mrs. Tonkin lost control momentarily, stepped on the gas instead of the brake and hit the palm tree.

Nine Musicals Set For Summer Stock

NEW YORK (AP)—Nine Broadway musicals and 12 plays are to be heard along the stock circuit for the first time this summer.

Among the melody properties being licensed are "My Fair Lady," "Camelot," "Milk and Honey," "Tovarich," "Little Me," "The Sound of Music," "No Strings," "She Loves Me" and "Stop the World—I Want to Get Off." Off-Broadway contributes "Riverwind" to the batch of fresh material.

The plays include "Chips With Everything," "Take Her, She's Mine," "A Thousand Clowns," "Oh, Dad," "Enter Laughing," "Good Morning, Miss Dove," "The Irregular Verb To Love," "Love and Kisses," "The Milk Train Doesn't Stop Here Anymore," Orson Welles' version of "Moby Dick," "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" and the double bill, "The Private Ear" and "The Public Eye."

Mrs. S. P. Peabody Supports Theatre

NEW YORK (AP)—One of off-Broadway's busiest women is Mrs. Samuel P. Peabody, socialite sister-in-law of Endicott Peabody, the governor of Massachusetts.

Mrs. Peabody and three partners manage the Writers Stage Company, which recently produced two Ionesco one-act plays, "Victims of Duty" and "The New Tenant." On the agenda for next season is a play by David Rayfield, whose "P.S. 93" was produced in 1962 by the same company.

Mrs. Peabody explains her show business activity: "I have always been interested in the theater's creative procedure. I enjoy organizational work."

HILDEGARDE TO EMOTE

NEW YORK (AP)—Hildegard of the supper clubs expects to test her acting skill soon in a play.

"I want very much to get into the theater," explains the chanteuse. "There comes a time for a change. I'm tired of clubs. I'm tired of living in hotels."

WOMAN SLEUTH AIDS MOUNTIES IN CRIME WORK

BY DENNIS ORCHARD

VANCOUVER (AP)—The pretty blonde strode under the twin towers and up the front steps of the old Agriculture Department building, now the Royal Canadian Mounted Police's West-Coast crime detection laboratory. She pulled on a white smock and went to work with microscope and a sheaf of notes in a darkened room under ultra-violet light. A few hours later, she left for the airport.

Marlene Pearce, serologist, was off again to describe the result of her investigation in another witness box, one of scores she has spoken from in towns and cities of four Canadian provinces and the Yukon during 3 1/2 years as a civilian member of the Mounties.

At 25, she is an old hand in front of judge and jury. Her evidence often adds substantially to a net of incriminating data or casts significant doubt on a suspect's guilt.

Her evidence was part of the Crown case convicting two men for the murder of golf professional Frank Willey. Stains matching Willey's blood group were found in a car trunk, on a tire and in a house under construction.

A break-in artist pleaded guilty when confronted with Marlene's evidence about bloodstains near a window he had broken and about glass fragments found in his clothing.

Marlene decided as a teen-ager that she wanted a career with the Mounties and she stuck to her plan.

Young women last about two years before abandoning travel and the serology lab for marriage and the kitchen, her boss says. At that rate, Marlene's 3 1/2 years with the Force are stretching the average.

WELSH SONG FESTIVAL TO CLIMAX 3-DAY CONVENTION

An AP State Spotlight
Editor's Note: The Welsh call it Gymanfa Ganu and even a casual visitor usually finds the mood and excitement so infectious he raises his voice in song with the others.

By DONALD C. WILLIAMS
Associated Press Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Picture a vast auditorium crowded with men and women eager to sing—but not in the ordinary way of congregations. These people—3,500 to 4,000 of them—are directed to their proper voice sections—soprano, alto, tenor, bass.

This separates husband and wife, father and daughter, sister and brother, friend and friend, but for a very good reason, musically. It is done so that the conductor may bring out the best in harmonious shading of choral singing.

And probably no people anywhere are so musically meticulous as those of Welsh blood, one of whose finest hours will come in this mighty outpouring of song early in September.

SING FROM HEART

The occasion will be the Gymanfa Ganu, a Welshman's term for a festival of song.

The Welsh sing from the heart. That is now thousands of Americans of Welsh descent will be singing at the 33rd annual convention of the National Gymnastic Association of the United States and Canada in Philadelphia Sept. 3-6.

The song festival will be on Sunday, the last day of the gathering, in Convention Hall, both afternoon and evening.

You don't have to be of Welsh origin to attend, or to join in the singing. You may attend with the idea of being only an appreciative listener, but the mood and the excitement are so infectious that it's almost certain you'll raise your voice with the others.

PREPARE FOR YEAR

The 235-year-old Welsh Society of Philadelphia and its staff counterpart, the Women's Welsh Club, have been preparing the convention program for nearly a year. This is the first Gymnastic Association—pronounced Guman'va Gunny—to be held here in 10 years.

John Ellis Rosser, convention chairman, says two platoons of Welsh singers are coming from London. Welsh-Americans are expected from at least 20 cities and a host of Welsh settlements in this country and Canada.

Dr. Leslie Wynne Evans, of Cardiff, Wales, will lead the mass singing. A member of the faculty of the University of Wales, Evans has been lecturing on campuses in this country for several weeks. He has been identified with the National Eisteddfod of Wales, a competitive song and poetry festival, and poetry festival, and other traditional festivals in Wales and elsewhere in Britain.

FITTING SETTING

As noted by Rosser and other

Five of the six Adams County young women who will represent the county Thursday at the Central District Dress Revue in Greenpark High School, Millertown, are shown as they appeared following the county roundup at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. Left to right are Carolyn Hook of the Barlow 4-H club; Lyn Galusha of the Arendtsville club; Sally Brown of the county-wide Clothing Club; Martha Bowman of the Sand Hill 200 Club; and Judy Fissel of the Arendtsville Club. The sixth contestant, not shown on the picture, is Sherry Hann of the Fairfield Club. Two county women will be among the judges at the District Dress Revue, Mrs. Carol Zinn of the Carol Ann Shoppe, Gettysburg, and Mrs. Edward Snyder, Fairfield. (Photo by Duane Duncan) convention officials, it is particularly fitting that these festivities be held in the Philadelphia region. Philadelphia itself was founded by the son of a Welshman—William Penn.

"Nor must we overlook the fact that here, too, another Welshman's son, Thomas Jefferson, wrote the first draft of the Declaration of Independence, and that Gouverneur Morris, another Welsh-American, finally drafted the Constitution," he says.

Many suburbs bear Welsh names, among them Bala-Cynwyd, Bryn Athyn, Llanerch, Merion, Narberth, Bryn Mawr, Colwyn, Gladwyne, Gwynedd Valley, Penlyn, Radnor, St. Asaph, St. David's.

TWO CHURCH SERVICES

A band of women has been on the go for weeks baking bara brith, a traditional Welsh fruit bread, and Welsh cookies for a get-together on the Saturday night of Sept. 5, known as te bach, or little tea. Into the preparations of these delicacies went 150 pounds of raisins, 30 pounds of currants and 30 pounds of glazed fruits, along with more than 100 pounds of flour.

Two church services will be held Sunday morning, one in Welsh and the other in English. The Rev. O. R. Williams, of Youngstown, Ohio, will preach the Welsh sermon in one church and the Rev. R. J. Williams, of Scranton, the English one in another.

At the Convention Hall song festival, the chief attention will be given to old, familiar hymns. That is tradition again. Authorities say that part singing had its origin and early development among the Welsh, and that its finest expression today is in the Gymanfa Ganu.

In its present form the Gymanfa Ganu is about 100 years old, born humbly, in the little chapels and churches of Wales.

Men Go To Court For Wives' Help

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Two unemployed men from Luzerne County have begun legal action to force their wives to help provide for their families.

With the cooperation of Pennsylvania's Department of Welfare, petitions were filed Tuesday by Nicholas De Angelo, of Hazleton, and Stanley Proshunas, of Exeter Borough.

De Angelo said in his petition his wife, Anna, is able to financially contribute to the support of himself and their son.

Proshunas said his wife, Lavinia, is able to provide for their two children through separate means of support.

Both men are currently on relief.

Youths Throw Acid In Face Of Man, 20

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP)—A gang of six or seven youths threw acid in the face of a 20-year-old Bristol garage mechanic Tuesday as he was walking home, police said.

It was reported that doctors will have to wait three days before taking off the bandages to learn if Ronald Hughes has suffered impairment of vision. He was reported in satisfactory condition at Lower Bucks County Hospital.

The youths sped off in a car, police said.

The Church pennant is the only flag that may be flown above the Stars and Stripes.

TO TRY CLOUD SEEDING FOR NEVADA FIRES

ELKO, Nev. (AP)—Fire fighters planned to resort to cloud seeding today in hopes of creating more rain to help them control huge fires which have blazed in northeast Nevada since Saturday.

Bureau of Land Management officials estimated that about 350,000 acres of valuable range land have been burned in the fire-stricken region, declared a disaster area by Gov. Grant Sawyer.

Showers late Tuesday helped contain two of the fires, but winds fanned the massive Boulder Flat-Maggie Creek blaze northwest of Elko through 15 miles of grass and brush in a few hours.

180,000 ACRES

The Boulder Flat-Maggie Creek complex accounted for more than 180,000 acres of blackened range in an area 30 to 40 miles west and northwest of Elko.

Some lightning flashed Tuesday, but there were no reports of new fires. Nearly all the big blazes of the past five days were set by lightning.

Fire crews totaled about 2,000 men, many of them Indian professionals from throughout the West.

Seeking Help For Wyoming County

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Seranton is asking the U.S. Agriculture Department to designate Wyoming County as a drought disaster area.

The governor wrote to Orville Freeman, U.S. secretary of Agriculture, Tuesday telling him of the prolonged dry weather in that section of the state.

If the county is declared a disaster area, farmers would be permitted to use hay and pasture land from acreage held under the national conservation reserve program.

ELECTED BY KP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert H. Culley of Washington, Pa., has been elected supreme vice chancellor of the Knights of Pythias. Culley, who will serve for two years, will be installed at the organization's convention concluding ceremonies Friday.

Centre County Has Youth Corps Of Eighty At Work

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—The Youth Corps is at work in Centre County.

The corps, an official arm of county government, is comprised of almost 80 youngsters, male and female, 14 to 17 years old, who go about the county fixing here, rebuilding there and building over there.

The corps, officially titled the Centre County Youth Corps, was conceived by County Judge R. Paul Campbell in 1961.

STARTED LAST YEAR

It began to take its baby steps last year when 18 teen-agers, working under a $1,000 budget contributed by prominent citizens of the county, got started on a healthy list of projects.

In their first summer season, the youths: Rebuilt Logan Branch between Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap, put in seven jack dams, put deflectors in Spring Creek at Bellefonte; cleaned the falls; rebuilt banks, bottoms and deflectors at Fisherman's Paradise and also handed some park projects.

This year over 140 teen-agers applied for the program.

The corps divided the county into four districts—Phillipsburg, Bellefonte, State College and Millheim—and set off on their jobs.

BUILDING A PARISH

Fifteen teen-agers are at work in the Phillipsburg district clearing ing trails with a forest ranger in Black Moshannon State Park.

In Millheim, five of them are working in the Poe-Paddy State Park while another five are restoring four cemeteries in the area.

A 10-man team is building a municipal park in the State College district.

Bellefonte's team is again building jack dams and cleaning stream bottoms on spring creek.

PAID FROM DONATIONS

Payment to corps members comes strictly from donations.

If transportation expenses arise, the teens take care of that themselves.

Judge Campbell explained his thinking behind the corps:

"Teen-age boys and girls complained they had nothing to do and this was how the original idea came into being. A large number of corps members volunteer, and some are asked to join. Strong morale and enthusiasm generate during the season."

Juvenile Court Officer John E. McHugh, who collaborated with Judge Campbell on the idea, added:

"We believe this kind of activity gives youth a sense of direction that is in harmony with the aims of the community. The teen-ager learns to cooperate, to take orders, to be punctual and explore future careers."

Some Volkswagen owners
look down on other
Volkswagen owners.

When you graduate from a Volkswagen Sedan to a Volkswagen Station Wagon, you really step up in the world.

The Station Wagon stands a good foot taller than other cars.

And it holds more than the biggest conventional wagon you can find.

But the VW Wagon isn't only tall. It's also short.

We saved 4 feet of hood in front by putting the engine in back.

Big as it is inside, it's only 9 inches longer than the Volkswagen Sedan.

So people who move up to the high-slung model still feel very much at home.

They park in the same little spots. They still don't worry about freezing or boiling; the engine is air-cooled.

They still go a long way on a gallon of gas (about 24 miles) and a very long way on a set of tires (about 30,000 miles).

And it just tickles them to drive one Volkswagen and look down on a million others.

Miss MacRae Is Learning The Hard Way

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Pretty, blonde Meredith MacRae, the 20-year-old daughter of Gordon and Shaila, is learning the acting business in one of television's most demanding schools, the ABC series "My Three Sons."

Most television series are filmed program by program, although scenes often are shot out of sequence to save set-changing time.

"My Three Sons" for four years has been filmed in large unrelated chunks under a special arrangement with the star, Fred MacMurray, who works on the show only for certain concentrated periods.

A BIT DIFFICULT

The other regulars — the three boys who play the sons, costar William Frawley and Meredith, who is playing the oldest son's fiancée for a second season — spend the rest of the time shooting scenes in which MacMurray does not appear.

"It does make your role a bit difficult," admitted the young performer. "You can't learn a whole show. Sometimes you'll be learning three different scenes for three different programs, to be shot in the same working period."

Since last season, Meredith has become formally engaged to Richard Berger, a young Midwesterner whose career interest is business management. As the long-playing fiancée of Mike Douglas, played by Tim Considine, Meredith wears no engagement ring because, according to the story line, he can't afford one.

CLOSE-KNIT FAMILY

Off the set, she wears a pretty solitaire. She forgot to remove it for one scene and remembered the oversight with panic later.

"I was lucky," she said. "It was a long shot and I was sort of turned to one side, so my left hand didn't show at all."

The MacRaes are a close-knit family, but like most youngsters with famous parents, Meredith wants her own identity.

TO BE MARRIED

"I used to think people were interested in me because of my parents and I used to look for something like that," she admitted. "But now I don't feel that

Woman's Screams Unheeded In Hotel

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A woman was beaten unconscious, shot and robbed in her room at the Hilton hotel Tuesday — her screams for help mistaken by a maid for shrieks of girls waiting for the Beatles.

Gertrude Goodman, of Marysville, Calif., about 50, was taken to Children's Hospital in critical condition. Police said a bullet had grazed her head.

About 2,000 fans of the British singing group swarmed around the hotel before the Beatles reached the hotel four hours later.

Turkish Units Are Returned To NATO

PARIS (AP) — Turkish air units withdrawn from the Atlantic Alliance defense system last week were returned today to NATO command.

The Turkish units were withdrawn for use in carrying out sorties over Greek Cypriot positions on Cyprus.

A spokesman for Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe said Turkey informed NATO early today it was returning the units to NATO control.

Adults May Gain Job Advice From Local School Offices

WASHINGTON, D. C. — If you are a draftsman and think you might be happier as an accountant . . . if you wonder what your IQ is . . . if you want to know what kinds of jobs offer the best future in your part of the country . . . if you need information on finishing your high school education . . . your nearby public adult school may have the answers.

The shifting patterns of today's work world—resulting from automation and the diminishing number of low-skilled jobs—have brought more and more adults to the schools for advice on what jobs to train for, and what education they will need. Here is some information you would receive, if you sought advice on a particular occupation, says the National Association for Public School Adult Education, a department of the National Education Association. The counselor would tell you:

The level of general education you would need.

The length of time required for specialized training; where you could get it, and what it would cost.

Level of intelligence of average person in that line of work.

Special talents and aptitudes required.

Activities most characteristic of the job.

Average annual earnings you could expect.

How secure the occupation is.

What the opportunities are for advancement.

Proportion of job openings to supply of qualified applicants in your area.

COUNSELOR SERVICE

High school dropouts are prime guidance targets in cities that are making energetic efforts to lure these boys and girls into some kind of education program. In Poughkeepsie, N. Y., dropouts are required to fill in an exit questionnaire, which is sent immediately to the Adult Education Center. The counseling which follows helps each youth to make realistic decisions about jobs and continuing his education in adult classes. Free occupational testing is available to all interested adults in Poughkeepsie.

Men and women in San Diego, Calif., who want to finish high school through adult classes, are tested before school starts, or during the first week. Purpose of the testing: to make sure they are placed in the classes best suited to their abilities and educational achievement. For example, students who do not read well enough, nor test high enough in mathematics, are placed in basic reading and arithmetic classes.

Emergency counseling was provided by the Amherst, N. Y., Central Adult School when many local residents had to decide whether to move with their company to another state or seek employment in the Amherst area.

Through counseling programs, adults can find the needs, according to adult education directors in Pinellas County, Fla., which began a counseling program three years ago. Counseling helps adults get a clear picture of their abilities, so they can plan their courses realistically, says a coordinator of evening classes in Pinellas County, where about 100 adults have individual guidance interviews each month.

Would you benefit from counseling? The answer is yes, if—

You have sometimes thought of attending adult classes, but lack confidence in your ability to learn you would like to finish elementary or high school, but don't know how to go about it, or how long it would take you would like to change your job, but don't know what kind of work would be best for you you feel inadequate to cope with the problems facing you as a parent

you want to prepare for college, and need information you are not going back to day-time school this fall, and wonder how you could finish your education and hold down a job, too.

Barbecued Buffalo For Mrs. Johnson

GREEN RIVER, Wyo. (AP) — This railroad and highway town of 3,800 served barbecued buffalo for lunch Monday. The First Lady of the United States, Lady Bird Johnson, was there.

So were more than 4,000 others, including a pack of Goldwater boosters who had as much fun as any Democrat.

It was the biggest event in Green River and Sweetwater County in years. The townspeople made the most of it.

Mrs. Johnson came to town to wind up her four-day visit to the West — and to dedicate the nearby Flaming Gorge Lake and recreation area. Earlier in the day, she had dedicated Flaming Gorge Dam in Utah. Wyoming, with most of the lake inside its boundaries, requested equal time.

A Lovelie! You

By MARY SUE MILLER
"HAPPY WAYS" AT THE TABLE. A century-old Manual of Good Manners demonstrates that the essential rules of behavior at the table still hold good. As proof of their common sense and continuing value, we offer a number of the quaintly-phrased originals from the manual:

Come not to table without having your hands and face washed and your hair combed . . . Eat not too fast, nor with greedy behavior . . . make not a noise in eating or drinking . . . Speak not with victuals in your mouth . . . Grease not your fingers nor napkin more than necessity requires . . . Throw nothing under the table and dirty not the table cloth.

Additional rules of good table manners in the mid-19th Century, while axiomatic today, are amusingly quotable:

Cough not, if it can be avoided . . . Blow not your meat when too hot, nor smell not of it . . . Scratch not your head at table . . . Stuff not your mouth so much as to fill your cheeks.

Other substantial rules of yesteryear director the diner to: Endeavor so to eat as that none can see your victuals while chewing . . . Bite not your bread, but break it . . . Lean not your elbows on the table.

Good advice from that early arbiter of etiquette? Yes, indeed, for if we follow the accepted standards of behavior, our lives will be that much more pleasant.

To open a door on increased poise and popularity, send for our booklet, WINNING MANNERS.

Topics included are introductions, invitations, table manners, the charming hostess, you—the guest, dating manners, formal dances, travel tips and tipping, small points, like when to wear a hat or check your coat. For your copy,

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI says clean books and healthy amusements are needed to counter juvenile "decadence."

Speaking to a group of Italian Boy Scouts at his summer residence at Castel Gandolfo, the Pope said much juvenile "decadence" existed because young people "have not had good companions, wise friends, patient and courageous teachers, serene amusements, clean books, a positive experience with life."

Goldwater's TV Campaign Flexible

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's advisers are mapping a massive television campaign, and keeping it flexible to counter any major Democratic moves in the race for the White House.

Goldwater aides sketched Tuesday the plans being developed for a broadcasting effort they said will cost about $4.5 million. It is expected to begin before the end of September.

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch has estimated the Democrats will spend more than $8 million on President Johnson's television campaign.

The Goldwater forces are laying out a campaign plan that will include filmed and taped television programs, both regional and national, a handful of major live appearances on nationwide television, and brief spot announcements on both radio and television.

world's most celebrated police headquarters, it will ask for aid in tracing stolen property, appeal for witnesses of crimes or accidents, and warn about property thieves may be trying to sell.

The new program will go on two minutes each day Monday through Friday.

GOP HOPEFULS GO TO SCHOOL

PITTSBURGH (AP) — For the first time Republicans who want to be governors are getting a chance to receive instruction from some astute teachers—other Republicans who are governors.

How well they learned their lessons will be evident at examination time in November when the only passing grade is victory.

A two-day school for candidates, brainchild of the Republican Governors' Conference, opened Monday under the sponsorship of the GOP National Committee. Gubernatorial candidates from the western half of the nation will go to school today and Thursday in Denver.

The Pittsburgh school's faculty includes three incumbent governors—William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma and Robert E. Smylie of Idaho, first elected in 1954 and the senior Republican governor in the nation from point of service.

Smylie underlined the purpose of the school by noting that there were 28 Republicans governors in 48 states in 1952 and now only 16 in 50 states.

SOME BLIND MEN SEE

In California lives a man by the name of Jimmy Uyeshima. Jimmy is a success in his work in the direct selling field. In just 11 months last year he sold $32,000 worth of household appliances and supplies, outselling many of his fellow salesmen in the business.

But Jimmy has a handicap—he is totally blind!

He, of course, hires a man to drive him to his work area. Then the driver tells him whether it is a dead-end street, or if the houses are up steps, etc. Jimmy then canvasses alone with his white cane. When he gets into a house, the driver carries in his equipment, leads him around the room so he can feel where the furniture is placed, then leaves Jimmy to demonstrate his equipment while the customer writes up her own order.

Jimmy Uyeshima is blind, but he can see better than many normal men. He is certainly an exceptional case. But what made him different from many other blind men? First, I believe he was honest enough to recognize his helpless condition, then he was wise enough to seek a remedy, and when he found it he was confident enough to put it to the test. The result was success!

Millions today are groping around in spiritual darkness, too proud and self-sufficient to be aware of their spiritual blindness. Paul wrote, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world (Satan) hath BLINDED the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (II Cor. 4:3,4). The Church of Laodicea is described in Revelation 3:17: "... thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and BLIND, and naked." Spiritual blindness came upon the church because of their pride and self-sufficiency.

Jesus warned the religious leaders of His day of their condition. He said, "Ye BLIND guides, which strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel . . . Thou BLIND Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also" (Matt. 23:24,25). Blindness to eternal truth is the lot of all who do not know God. Paul encouraged the Christians to "walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their minds, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the BLINDNESS of their heart" (Eph. 4:17,18).

We need to be honest enough to recognize our condition, and then wise enough to seek the remedy. Jesus is the Light of the World: He is the only remedy for spiritual blindness. By turning in faith to Him we shall discover that as He healed many of physical blindness when He walked on earth He will heal our spiritual blindness today.

Put Him to the test right now! Recognize your blindness, accept the remedy for your blindness, and put Jesus Christ to the test. Then I am sure that you will be able to "show forth the praise of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light" (I Pet. 2:9).

BARUCH AT 94 SEES PROMISE OF PERFECTION

NEW YORK (AP) — Bernard Baruch turned a spry 94 today with an off-handed word to continue the kind of thinking that brought him fame and fortune and had presidents asking his advice.

"I don't want to dwell on the past," Baruch said at a news conference Tuesday. "Today and tomorrow concern me more than yesterday."

COMPLEX PROBLEMS

The financier, who had earned a fortune by his 30th birthday, added: "It seems to me that our country's problems, domestic and foreign, are today more complex and difficult than any we have known in the past."

"Yet, despite these problems and perils, the future holds out infinite possibilities and promises for the perfection of democracy and for the improvement of life, not only in this country but in every land."

LOOKS YOUNGER

Standing erect and supported lightly by a cane as he walked in and out of a midtown hotel suite for his news conference, the 6-foot-3 Baruch looked many years younger than his 94.

Except for the time it took to

Icebox Door Shut By Other Children

BALTIMORE (AP) —Police say other children have admitted shutting the door of an abandoned icebox in which three children suffocated.

The victims, Howard Banks, 5, Dorene Alston, 5, and Marlene Kennedy, 8, were found Aug. 10, the day after they had disappeared, in an old icebox in a garage behind a house in the block in which they all lived.

Patrolmen Nicholas Wingrove and Frank Wilt said Tuesday they were puzzled because the garage door was closed when the children were found, and so began questioning neighborhood children.

read a brief statement, Baruch lightheartedly traded banter with reporters.

Asked what was the greatest lesson he had learned, Baruch smiled and quipped: "To mind my own business."

He said he seldom goes to Central Park anymore. He gained such fame for passing out advice from a bench there that one was dedicated to him and a plaque bearing his name was attached to it. The same honor was given him in a Washington, D.C., park.

A spokesman said Baruch swims three or four times each week and still makes trips to his plantation in South Carolina.

MANY ROUTED BY FUMES OF WEED KILLER

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Hundreds of persons were routed from their homes by noxious fumes Tuesday night after a 55-gallon drum of underwater weed killer exploded at a chemical plant.

More than 100 persons were treated at hospital emergency rooms for eye and nose irritations, cramps and nausea.

The fumes, from a chemical called acrolein, billowed from open doors and windows into the heavily populated, mostly Negro neighborhood. Mass traffic jams caused by curious onlookers hampered firemen and police trying to reach the area in gas masks.

EXPLAINS REACTION

"First you choke, then you get abdominal cramps and nausea," said Vernon Barchard, photographer for the Tampa Tribune. "I vomited 15 minutes."

Police Capt. L. J. Buchanan and fireman Lionel Hernandez, were hospitalized for observation.

Herbert Friedman, president of Southern Mill Creek Chemical Co., where the explosion occurred, said the chemical fumes were not poisonous.

BUILT UP PRESSURE

Friedman said he was in the plant office when he heard an explosion about 8 p.m. He said the chemical apparently built up pressure inside the container, blowing off the top and spewing snowflake-size powder over a store room.

Firemen, wearing gas masks and rubber suits, entered the four-story building to cap the drum. Many were overcome when fumes seeped through loose masks.

Police, using sound trucks, ordered evacuation of a 16-square

Japanese Men Try To Beat Heat Wave

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese authorities are trying to discourage Tokyo males from wandering about publicly in their underwear for fear of the effect it might have on the tourist trade.

The problem has arisen because of a heat wave and the excellent air conditioning at the recently refurbished Tokyo International Airport.

Reports say hundreds of men have been flocking to the airport terminal clad only in underpants, undershirts and sandals. There they relax in the cool lounges, oblivious to the stares of foreigners.

BEATLES BRING 'FRISCO FRENZY

By DAVID COWGER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A quiet frenzy hung like fog in the air today as thousands of youngsters prepared to storm the Cow Palace for the Beatles' concert tonight.

At the Hilton Hotel the British quartet scheduled a day of rest in preparation for their first appearance on the current U.S. tour.

The Beatles arrived Tuesday and were greeted by an estimated 9,000 teen-agers, far below predicted estimates of between 50,000 and 100,000. About a dozen girls required first aid. None was seriously hurt.

The British group permitted their fans a 40-second audience at the airport before they were whisked off to the downtown hotel. A press conference turned into an autograph session when several young fans slipped into the hotel.

Some fans arrived at the airport Monday night. Others blocked the area around the plant. Firemen, using hoses, brought the fumes under control shortly before midnight.

SATELLITE IS LAUNCHED FOR OLYMPIC FILM

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The Syncom 3 communications satellite rocketed today toward an intended stationary orbit high above the Pacific Ocean where it would be in position to relay swiftly to North America and Europe television pictures of the October Olympic Games in Japan.

A powerful TAD — Thrust-Augmented Delta — rocket burst away from its launching pad at 7:15 a.m. (EST) to propel the complex payload toward a planned elliptical orbit ranging from 700 to 22,300 miles high.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration hoped to know within an hour whether this preliminary "transfer" orbit was achieved.

INTRICATE MANEUVERS

Once in that orbit, Syncom 3 must execute a number of intricate maneuvers over a 12-day period to change orbit and reach its goal as the world's first truly synchronous-stationary-satellite.

The payload's final target area is a point 22,300 miles above the intersection of the Equator and the International Date Line. It would appear to hover motionless there because it would be traveling at a speed matching that of the earth's rotation below.

Although two or three hours of Olympic television film is to be sent from Japan to the United States in the course of the 15-day Olympic period, U.S. viewers probably will see very little of it. However, Canadian and European broadcasters plan to make extensive use of the film after speeding it by microwave and by jet plane from the California reception point to Montreal and Hamburg, Germany.

TO TELEVISION OPENING

The National Broadcasting Co. purchased exclusive U.S. territorial rights to Olympic telecasts and plans to use mostly film flown from Tokyo. Because most of the action will occur while Americans are asleep, only the opening ceremonies on Oct. 10 are planned to be televised live via Syncom 3.

Under the NBC contract, other U.S. broadcasting interests will be allotted 9 minutes a day — in 3-minute segments — for showing Olympic film. Some of this may be relayed by Syncom 3.

gan arriving at 6:30 a.m., more than 12 hours before the Beatles' plane touched down.

Police estimated 2,000 fans greeted the singers when they arrived at the hotel.

Vote Count Battle Goes On In Court

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Attorneys prepared today to present arguments in Elections Court on an appeal by Justice Michael A. Musmanno to force the Elections Board to tabulate 50 contested absentee ballots cast in the April 28 primary election.

President Judge Vincent A. Carroll, in charge of the Elections Court, directed that the arguments be presented today following the filing of the appeal Tuesday.

Musmanno, a State Supreme Court justice, trails Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt by 457 votes in the race for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate.

The appeal was filed by Abraham E. Freedman, counsel for Musmanno. Freedman protested the action of the Elections Board in counting only 91 of the absentee ballots.

WANTS BEST OF ALL RACES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Postmaster General John A. Gronouski said today he will not tolerate "any deviation from a strict policy of nondiscrimination anywhere in the country, regardless of local circumstances or expediency."

In an address prepared for the annual convention of the National Postal Union, Gronouski reiterated his support of executive orders dealing with equal employment opportunities and employee-management cooperation in government.

"I do not want to see anyone picked for any job anywhere in the postal service, be it in North or South, unless he is the best man for the job," Gronouski said, adding:

"I do not care what his race is, or what his religion is, or anything else about him except his qualifications for the position."

Gronouski also said he intends to "continue the department's position as the leader in government in the area of labor-management relations . . . and I intend to keep open the channels of communication between management and the employee organizations."

RESEARCH IN CANCER GIVES NEW FINDINGS

By FRANK CAREY

AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new cancer research development, which a Senate group says forebodes a likely major breakthrough in pin-pointing the cause of the highly fatal leukemia of childhood, became known in detail today.

The Senate Appropriations Committee referred to the development in general terms in a report released Tuesday. Commenting on it and other scientific findings reported in recent hearings, the committee said: "Effective methods of prevention and cure (of leukemia) seem distinct possibilities in the light of several observations, some old and some new."

Perhaps the key finding — made so recently that the scientists involved have not yet had their findings published in medical literature — is that virus-like particles found in the blood of some human victims of leukemia can apparently be made to grow in laboratory test tubes.

3 YEARS OF EFFORT

The development — climaxing three years of effort dating from the time when such particles were first found in leukemia patients — is a necessary prelude to pinning down whether the particles are truly viruses and whether, indeed, they are directly or indirectly involved in causing human leukemia.

It could also be a first step towards trying to develop a vaccine against leukemia.

Officials of the National Cancer Institute supplied the information when asked by a reporter what the Senate committee was referring to in its report.

The Senate committee gave its views in a report to the Senate recommending a $140,011,000 appropriation for NCI, plus $10 million more for the institute's special cancer-virus research programs.

Camp Hill Broker To Enter Politics

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — James E. Breach, 57, a Camp Hill real estate broker, was named by the Cumberland County Democratic Committee Tuesday to run for the General Assembly.

If approved by the Democratic state executive committee, Breach will oppose an incumbent Republican, Rep. Guy A. Kistler, 53, of Camp Hill, in the Nov. 3 election. Kistler has held the county's first district seat since 1961.

W. Ray Noss, 53, of Hampden Twp. withdrew as the Democratic nominee for the seat on Aug. 8.

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Greensboro, N. C., meets Rome, N. Y., and Allegheny Valley-Kiski, Pa., plays Hagerstown, Md., tonight in the opening round of the eastern regional playoffs of the Pony League.

Winner of the double elimination tournament that ends this week-end will advance to the Pony League World Series at San Diego, Calif., next week.

named Gambler.

Buck's car hit Gambler in the rear, flipping him into the seat, said the California Highway Patrol.

Buck swerved off the road. Gambler got out and galloped off.

A veterinarian said Gambler, who lives on a nearby ranch, suffered only a few bruises and slight emotional upset.

Buck's car was dented, the windshield was broken and the inside needed sweeping — but it still runs.

Campobello Has Checkered History; To Become Park

By BILL LANGZETTEL
CAMPOBELLO, N.B. (AP) — A vagary of treaty-writing made this island, which Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson visits Thursday, a part of Canada, rather than the United States.

The First Lady, and Mrs. Lester B. Pearson, her Canadian counterpart, are coming for the official establishment of the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt's summer home as an international park.

More than 120 years ago, the United States and Britain were embroiled in a northeastern boundary dispute, which was settled in 1842 by the Webster-Ashburton Treaty. The agreement gave three islands off eastern Maine — Campobello, Deer Island and Grand Manan — to the mother country.

SHIFTING TO TOURISM

To this day there are those who think the American negotiator, Daniel Webster, was taken.

From Campobello's southwestern shore, a good golfer could drop a drive onto Lubeck, Maine. A 2-year-old bridge linking the island with the Maine sardine-canning town is only 847 feet long.

All around the wooded island — it's nine miles long and three wide — herring weirs jut into the sea — mute evidence that the 1,300 year 'round residents depend largely, as do Lubeckers, on the lowly sardine.

But the economy's base is shifting to tourism. The $900,000 bridge was largely responsible. Since its construction, Campobello has acquired its first restaurant — and hot dog stands.

CHECKERED HISTORY

Campobello has a long, checkered history. It has been the feudal fief of a Welsh family; haven for pre-Revolutionary War Tories from New York; a base for smuggling; summer playground of the wealthy; home to hard-working fisher folk, and now again a playground, this time for motoring vacationers.

A British navy captain, William Owen, acquired the island from the crown in 1767 — in exchange for an arm lost in battle, one legend has it.

For a century the Owens ruled — the last an Adm. William Fitzwilliam Owen who built, among other things, a plank walk around the rim of an island cliff on which he could walk and imagine himself still at sea.

In 1881, the island was sold to a group of wealthy New Yorkers and Bostonians who built hotels and cottages. Among them was the late President Roosevelt's father, James.

The red-shingled house, centerpiece of the new park, is nothing fancy. The accent is on comfort. Inside, it's just as if Franklin, Eleanor and their children had gone down to the beach and would be back any moment.

Fairfield

EDNA S. TAYLOR

FAIRFIELD — Mrs. D. L. Strausbaugh Sr., Harold Wortz and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sites, returned home recently after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sweizer and family, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sites, in Indianapolis, Ind. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sweizer of Circleville, O., and Mr. and Mrs. John McGlaughlin of Johnstown, Pa. Tommy Sweizer returned home with them for an extended visit with his grandparents.

The children and the families of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Warren held their first reunion Sunday at the Cat-Cat-Tem Picnic Woods, Canetown, Md. It was decided to make this an annual affair to be held the second Sunday of August each year. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warren and daughter, Beverly; Phyllis and Frankie Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren and son, Karl; Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph and son, Dean; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blubaugh and daughter, Robin; Earl Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosenwald and daughters, Sherry and Susan, Mr. and Mrs. James Kane; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kane and son, Darryl; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Szarawski; Mrs. Minnie Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Benchoff and daughter, Lori; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warren and daughter, Dixie; Mrs. Anna Fickes and children, Chester, Dennis, Jeffrey and Rosie; Mrs. Ira McClain and daughter, Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Weikert and children, Linda, Susan, Randy and Joey; Mr. and Mrs. John Stem Jr., and children, Terry and Karen; Bill Stem; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stem.

The Lutheran Church Women will meet next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parish house to make cancer bandages.

NO MORE WALKING

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — John Rowe, 14, won a $20 bet by completing a 50-mile hike. Asked what he would do with the money, he said he would save it — "I'd like to get a motor scooter."
